Race Traitor Anthology

Winner of the 1997 American Book Award
Before Columbus Foundation

“RACE TRAITOR is the most revolutionary challenge to racism made by American-European intellectuals in my lifetime.”
- Ishmael Reed

“The articles collected here do violence to liberal complacency and scholarly apathy. More such race treachery, such loyalty to mankind is needed.”
- Kathryne V. Lindberg, Wayne State University

“Thrilling to read! Required reading for all white hip-hop fans.”
- Upski, author of Bomb the Suburbs

At a time when white supremacist thinking seems to be gaining momentum, RACE TRAITOR brings together voices ranging from tenured university professors to skinheads to prison inmates to discuss the “white question” in America.

Noel Ignatiev is a Lecturer at Harvard University and the author of How the Irish Became White (Routledge 1995). John Garvey works in the Office of Academic Affairs at the City University of New York. Together they are the founders and editors of RACE TRAITOR: A JOURNAL OF THE NEW ABOLITIONISM.
