“Non-Jews are Murderers and Evil Thieves,” Orthodox Jewry Leader Says

The hateful spite of Jewish Supremacism has once again had its veil pulled away in public with the announcement by the leader of Lithuania’s branch of ultra orthodox Jewry that all non-Jews are “brainless thieves,” “murderers” and “evil-doers.”

Rabbi Aharon Yehuda Leib Shteinman, speaking in the Israeli city of Beit Shemesh to a gathering of religious Jews preparing for the Shavuot holiday, said that “There are eight billion people in the world. And what are they? Murderers, thieves, brainless people… But who is the essence of this world? Has God created the world for these murderers? For these evil-doers?”

His speech, published in full in the haredi, or most conservative ultra-orthodox, newspaper Yated Ne’eman, went on to say that “Non-Jews have no connection to torah. The nations have nothing, no confidence (=faith) and no good principles.

“Those who don’t study torah, are not fulfilling the mitzvoth. If he doesn’t study torah it leads to devastation, his devastation, and the world’s devastation…

“If not torah they will be illiterates and no joy will come of them. Even if he has money, is that the goal (in life)? Can you take money to the grave with you? There is no such thing. What do you have in the grave (afterlife)? Torah.”

There are many who say that the ultra-religious Jews are not part of the world-wide Jewish Supremacist threat to other nations.

The comments by Shteinman show the falseness of this belief. In reality, the ultra-orthodox provide the hard inner core of Jewish Supremacy, to which the group as a whole adheres, differing only in their honesty to the outside world.

The attitude that all non-Jews are “brainless,” “thieves,” murderers” and “evil-doers” who have not been chosen by God, forms a central core belief which underpins Jewish Supremacy and the general hatred of Gentiles for which they are known.

What would the reaction be if anyone else in the world, European, Arabic, African or Chinese, dared to make such a violently racist pronouncement.

What would the Zionist-controlled media say if an American religious leader announced that all Jews were “murderers,” “brainless evil-doers” and “thieves?”

The media outcry would be immediate, vehement and hysterical. Yet, because it is a Jewish Supremacist making these comments about non-Jews, the report of Shteinman’s comments is limited to a few articles in some obscure Jewish media, where the masters of lies are confident that the Goyim will not notice.
Once again, the veil hiding Jewish Supremacy has been torn down, by the Jewish extremists themselves.

All decent people of the world, no matter their race or origin, should take note of this insight in the hate-filled and utterly evil view which Jewish Supremacists have of them.

Truly the world will not know peace until this nightmare is removed from all positions of power in the world today.
